Notes to the Financial Statements

For the year ended 30 June 2006

Held to maturity

Held-to-maturity investments are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments and fixed maturity that an entity has the positive intention and ability to hold to maturity.

Investments classified as held to maturity are recognized initially at cost, plus attributable transaction cost. Subsequent to initial recognition, these are stated at amortized cost with any difference between cost and redemption value being recognized in the profit and loss account over the period of the investments on an effective yield method.

Loans and advances originated by enterprise

Loans and advances originated by enterprise are recognized initially at cost, plus attributable transaction cost. Subsequent to initial recognition, loans and advances originated by enterprise are stated at amortized cost with any difference between cost and redemption value being recognized in the profit and loss account over the period of the investments on an effective yield method.

Investments in associates - Equity Method

Entities in which the company has significant influence but not control and which are neither its subsidiary nor joint ventures are associates and are accounted for by using the equity method of accounting.

These investments are initially recognised at cost, thereafter the company's share of the changes in the net assets of the associates are accounted for at the each balance sheet date. Share of post acquisition profit and loss of associates is accounted for in the company's profit and loss account, whereas changes in the associate's equity which has not been recognized in the associates' profit and loss account, are recognised directly in the equity of the company.

Up to the previous year, investments in associates were classified as "Investments Available-for-sale" and were carried at fair value, while dividend income was recognized in the profit and loss account of the period in which right to receive the same was established in line with the option available in International Accounting Standard "Accounting for Investments in Associates" (IAS-28).

IAS-28 has been revised and replaced by International Accounting Standard 28 "Investments in Associates" {IAS-28(Revised)}. The revised IAS-28 is applicable for accounting periods beginning on or after 1 January 2005 and has withdrawn the options for valuing investments in associates at cost and fair value where the investment in associates have been classified as 'Available-for-sale' investments. The revised IAS -28 requires that the measurement of the value of investments in associates can only be made on equity basis of accounting under which the carrying amount of such investments are increased or decreased for the company's share of gains and losses of associates (including the changes in items recognized directly in the associate's equity) and dividend distributions.

In order to comply with the requirements of revised IAS-28, during the year, the management of the company has decided to change its accounting policy for valuation of investments in associates, in which the company has significant influence but not control, from fair value measurement to equity basis of accounting. This change in accounting policy has been accounted for retrospectively in accordance with the International Accounting Standard "Accounting Policies, Changes in Accounting Estimates and Errors" (IAS-8) and accordingly the comparative statements have been restated.

For the year ended 30 June 2006

Because of change in accounting policy, opening retained earnings for the year ended 30 June 2005 have been increased by Rs. 30.23 million, which is the amount of the adjustment relating to periods prior to 1 July 2004. The effect of proportionate share of reserves of associates and fair value reserves on available for sale investments relating to periods prior to 1 July 2004 increased equity by Rs. 105.92 million and decreased equity by Rs. 170.16 million respectively.

Had the policy not been changed, the carrying value of investments in associates as at 30 June 2006, in which the company has significant influence but not control, would have been lower by Rs.127.97 million (2005: Rs.32.68 million), the profit for the year would have been higher by Rs. 12.22 million (2005: Rs.25.67 million), deferred tax liability would have been higher by Rs. 0.384 million (2005: lower by Rs.0.259 million) and equity would have been lower by Rs. 128.35 million (2005: Rs. 32.42 million).

Available-for-sale

Other investments not covered in any of the above categories including investments in associates in which the company has no significant influence are classified as being available-for-sale and are stated at fair value, with any resultant gain or loss being recognized directly in equity. Gains or losses on available-for-sale investments are recognized directly in equity until the investments are sold or disposed off, or until the investments are determined to be impaired, at that time cumulative gain or loss previously reported in the equity is included in current year's profit and loss.

All investments classified as available-for-sale are initially recognized at cost inclusive of transaction costs and subsequently quoted investments are marked to market using the last quoted rate at the close of the financial year. Fair value of unquoted investments is estimated based on appropriate valuation method if it is practicable to determine it.

Upto 30 June 2005, reversal of impairment losses on available-for-sale investments was recognized in profit and loss account. However, in view of the revised International Accounting Standard "Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement" effective from accounting period beginning on or after 1 January 2005, impairment losses recognised in profit and loss account shall not be reversed through profit and loss account. There is no financial impact of this change in the current and prior years.

6.11 Fair value of listed securities are the quoted prices on stock exchange at balance sheet date.

6.11.1 The company follows trade date accounting for purchase and sales of investments.

6.12 Derivative financial instruments

The company enters into derivative financial instruments which include future contracts in stock market. Derivatives are initially recorded at cost and are remeasured to fair value on subsequent reporting dates. The fair value of a derivative is the equivalent of the unrealized gain or loss from marking to market the derivative using prevailing market rates. Derivatives with positive market values (unrealized gains) are included in other receivables and derivatives with negative market values (unrealized losses) are included in other liabilities in the balance sheet. 6.14 Stocks

Stock-in-trade is stated at the lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost is arrived at on a weighted average basis. Cost of work-in-process and finished goods include cost of materials and appropriate portion of production overheads. Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business less costs of completion and selling expenses. Goods-in-transit are valued at actual cost accumulated to the balance sheet date. The cost of finished goods of steel division is measured on the specific identification method.

Scrap stocks are valued at their estimated net realizable value.

6.15 Trade debts and other receivables

These are originated by the company and are stated at cost less provisions for any uncollectible amount. An estimate is made for doubtful receivables when collection of the amount is no longer probable. Debts considered irrecoverable are written off.

6.16 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents comprise cash balances and call deposits. Bank overdrafts that are repayable on demand and form an integral part of the company's cash management are included as a component of cash and cash equivalents for the purpose of the statement of cash flows.

Revenue from sales is recognized on dispatch of goods to customers. The company also recognizes sales when it specifically appropriates deliverable goods against such confirmed orders where significant risks and rewards of ownership are transferred to the buyer.

Interest income is recognized on the basis of constant periodic rate of return.

Dividend income relating to post acquisition profit if practicable to determine is recognized when the right to receive is established i.e. the book closure date of the investee company declaring the dividend.

Gains and losses on sale of investments are accounted for when the commitment (trade date) for sale of security is made.

Loss arising from sale and lease back transactions are recognized through profit and loss account immediately. Gain on sale and lease back transactions are treated as deferred income. The deferred

Borrowing costs incurred on long term finances directly attributable for the construction / acquisition of qualifying assets are capitalised up to the date the respective assets are available for the intended use. All other mark-up, interest and other related charges are taken to the profit and loss account currently.

Up to the previous year, borrowing costs were charged to profit and loss account when incurred. During the current year, the management has decided to capitalize the borrowing costs incurred on long term finances that are directly attributable to the acquisition, construction or production of a qualifying asset. This change does not have financial effect on prior years.

Had the policy not been changed, the profit for the year and carrying amount of property, plant and equipment would have been decreased by Rs. 22.47 million.

16. CONTINGENCIES AND COMMITMENTS

- 16.1 The Ministry of Labour, Manpower and Overseas Pakistani's Division (the Ministry) in response to an application for establishment of separate fund for cotton division under Clause 15 of the Scheme to the Companies Profit (Workers' Participation) Act, 1968 has granted the permission for the same. The Ministry has, however, asked the company to deposit an amount of Rs. 47.85 million on account of Workers Profits Participation Fund for the period between 1990 to 1997. This demand is being contested by the company as there were no eligible workers. The management, based on the advice of its legal consultants, is considering to file a constitutional petition in the High Court and is confident of a favourable outcome. Thus, no provision has been made for the aforementioned amount in these financial statements.
- 16.2 The company has filed a claim against SNGPL for return of its performance bond relating to a contract that was completed in the past. By way of a counter claim, SNGPL is claiming liquidated damages amounting to US dollar 904,447 and mark-up. The matter is currently pending before the Arbitrators. Management of the company, based on legal advice, is confident that there is no significant chance of the counter claim of SNGPL being allowed as the relevant guarantees have long since expired. Hence, no provision has been made in these financial statements. However, SNGPL has offered a direct settlement of this at a nominal value of US $ 12,000 only.
- 16.3 The company has filed a suit in the Sindh High Court against Federation of Pakistan and others, for levy of import licence fee at 6% against import of coating plant in 1992. The company contested that as per SRO 1317 (1)/94 dated 22 December 1990, being located in rural area, is only liable to pay 2 % of import licence fee. The company has provided bank guarantee of Rs. 3.42 million as directed by the Honourable Court. The petition was dismissed by High Court as having been incompetently filed. The company has filed the application with Honourable Supreme Court to obtain leave for appeal. No provision has been made in the financial statements as management considers that the company would be able to file appeal before Honourable Supreme Court and case would be decided in company's favour.
- 16.4 Sindh Industrial Trade Estate (SITE) has cancelled allotment of plot A-26 and A-27 and charged non-utilisation fees of Rs. 285,184 and Rs. 620,573 respectively. The company has challenged the cancellation and filed a suit in Sindh High Court. The High Court has restrained the SITE from taking any adverse action against the Company. Therefore, management considers that no provision is required.
- 16.5 Aggregate amount of guarantees given by the banks on behalf of the company in respect of the performance of various contracts aggregated Rs. 341.30 million (2005: Rs. 264.36 million).
- 16.6 The company filed a suit in the High Court of Sindh for recovery of retention money amounting to Rs. 3.27 million from Indus Steel Pipes Limited against supply of pipes. The High Court has decided the case in the company's favour, however, the company has not filed any execution petition for the recovery of said amount.
- 16.7 Commitments in respect of capital expenditure contracted for as at 30 June 2006 amounted to Rs. 39.60 million (2005: Rs. 51.71 million).
